

Lights! Camera! Culture!

Heaven on Earth Productions announces

Cooking and Culture with Mario

Filmed in Oaxaca, Mexico.

“Cooking and Culture with Mario” is a bilingual cooking and culture show, that takes place in Oaxaca, Mexico, hosted by Oaxacan nutritionist and cook, Mario Ruben Ramirez Lopez. Set in the state of Oaxaca, Mexico, a season is comprised of ten episodes and will take Mario to the eight regions of Oaxaca, the capital city of Oaxaca de Juarez, and a final special show.

Mario, who identifies as “third gender” will explore the particular and unique foods, cooking, customs of each region. Each region has its own traditional dances and dress and Mario will celebrate and explore the people and special places of each region. He will speak with the great cooks of the area as well as other people who have a special place in the culture. This will be Season 1. Each episode is 45 minutes long.

Season 2, Mario will explore various parts of Mexico with the same focus of the unique customs of each place.

Season 3, Mario will go outside of Mexico to visit 10 world class culinary destinations.

Total of 10 Seasons minimum.